

Library News
June 2018
French Novels
and Recent Additions

In consultation with the presenters of U3A French language courses it was decided to remove the French novels from the library shelves. The French dictionaries, however, will remain on the shelf.

The Dressmaker, by Rosalie Ham

This is an Australian story and the author's first novel. It has been produced as a major movie.

Collapse How Societies Choose to Fail or Survive, by Jarred Diamond

This was a No. 1 International Best Seller.

The Oxford History of the Classical World

Each chapter is written by a different author, an expert in the field.

DVD: Man on Wire

A film which documents Philippe Petit's 1974 high-wire walk between the tops of the Twin Towers of New York's World Trade Centre. It won a number of prizes including the Academy Award for Best Documentary Feature.

Information:

The library is available when the U3A complex is open which is usually all weekdays. All books and DVDs can be borrowed (please sign the appropriate borrow book).

Barbara MacDougall and Dorothy Houlden
Librarians