

Library News

June 2019

Recent Additions:

Against the Wind: Memoir of a Dissident Dubliner, by J.A.O'Brien who gave a Tuesday Short Course entitled "Brexit" on 22nd April. His publisher states that 'astute observation and character portrayal are the strengths of this work'.

Begat: The King James Bible and the English Language, by David Crystal. Published in 2010 to mark the 400th anniversary of The King James Bible

The Toucher, by Dorothy Hewett. Known for her poetry and plays this novel is her second published 34 years after her first.

Fair Cop: Christine Nixon, by Christine Nixon with Jo Chandler. In 2001 Christine Nixon became the first female Chief Commissioner of Police in Australia when she was appointed Head of Victoria Police.

Barbara McDougall and Mary Fry
Librarians