

Library News

December 2019

Reference Books on Aboriginal Australia

Following Diana Collier's Short Course on Aboriginal Australia Diana arranged access to further information on the topic by placing in the Library The Encyclopaedia of Aboriginal Australia, Volumes 1 and 2. They are located near the DVDs. These books are for Reference Only (they can be read in the U3A rooms but not borrowed). They will remain in the Library for several weeks more.

Rob Young Music Collection

Another batch of music CDs have been placed on the Library shelf. These are all available for borrowing (for one month). Please record borrowings in the Music CD Borrow Book.

Recent Additions

Following the Short Course, Celebrating Bendigo Women presented by Brenda Stevens-Chambers a relevant book was added to the Library. Anne Caudle: The Lady 1812 -1865. This book was donated by the author Betty May Jackman.

Another book featured by Brenda was already in our Library: The Lamp Still Burns, by Isabel 'Spark' Gill. This is an autobiographical account of nursing in Victoria 1936- 1981, starting at Bendigo Base Hospital.

Barbara McDougall and Mary Fry
Librarians