

Library News

March 2019

Library News is back in the Buzz after a break of several months and now there are two librarians:

Barbara McDougall (former librarian) and

Mary Fry (who looked after the library when Barbara was on extended “sick leave” last year).

We are conducting a review of the library books and culling some of the older ones to make space on shelves for new donations. The Biography Section is completed and we expect to have the Fiction and Non-Fiction Sections done by the time this News is published in the Buzz. Also we are organising a Classical Literature Section. Books that are removed are being donated to the YMCA.

Information about the library and the procedure for borrowing books and DVDs is given in the Library Use Guide on the U3A Website: click on Library News and then on Library Use Guide. There is also a notice on the Borrow Books shelf which outlines the procedure for borrowing books and DVDs. All books and DVDs can be borrowed, using an honour system – please sign the appropriate Borrow Book. The library is available when the U3A complex is open.

Barbara and Mary welcome suggestions about the library.

Recent Additions

The Fatal Shore by Robert Hughes. A history of the transportation of convicts to Australia 1787 – 1868

The Sentence is Death by Anthony Horowitz (2018). Probably his latest crime mystery – with a confronting title.

Mary Fry and Barbara McDougall